

Horse Quiz – General Knowledge

Quiz no 4

- 1) What speed is the gallop?
a) 20-25 mph (32-40 kph) b) 25-30 mph (40-48 kph) c) 30-35mph (48-56 kph)
- 2) What is the name for the bars which attach to the horse to pull a carriage or trap?
- 3) What is the name for a male donkey?
- 4) What is the name for a female donkey?
- 5) What is the pure Spanish breed of horse called?
- 6) What is the highest level of show-jumping called?
- 7) In show-jumping, what is the name of the competition when a fence (often a wall) progressively becomes higher in each round, often reaching 7ft (2.15m) or more?
- 8) What is the name for the breed of horse bred in the Southern United States to carry its owner around the plantations? They are recognisable by their unique four beat running walk.
- 9) In competition driving, the classes/categories are named according to the number of horses in the carriage or how they are harnessed. What is the 'team' called when one horse is harnessed in front of the other?
- 10) Foxhunting – The professional staff of a hunt wear coloured jackets, while members of the field wear black or blue. However, members under 18 year of age wear tweed jackets and all members wear tweed during the 'cubbing season'. What is this etiquette called?
- 11) Hunting – Following the Cubbing Season, what is the first 'proper' day of hunting called?
- 12) What is the name of the breed of horse developed in Great Britain often used for carriage driving and recognisable by their distinctive high knee action?
- 13) What is the name of the parasitic fly which often lays its eggs on a horse's leg?
- 14) Bute is an anti-inflammatory drug used to control pain. What is its full name?
- 15) What do the words 'Equus Ferus' mean?
- 16) In a small dressage arena (20m x 40m) the letters are A-F-B-M-C-H-E-K or A-K-E-H-C-M-B-F (depending on whether you remember it anti-clockwise or clockwise). In a standard/long dressage arena, what are the additional letters?
- 17) In classical dressage when a horse leaps and kicks out behind, what is this movement called?
- 18) What are quarter marks?
- 19) Westphalians, Trakehners and Oldenburgs are all types of _____?
- 20) In dressage, what is it called when a horse carries out multiple flying changes?