

Quiz no 2

- 1) What part of a horse's anatomy 'locks' allowing it to sleep while it is standing?
- 2) What is a Waterford?
- 3) The snaffle bit of a double bridle is called ..... ?
- 4) The Grand National is held at which Race Course?
- 5) Who wrote the book 'Black Beauty' ?
- 6) In which direction are you moving if you are performing lateral movements?
- 7) What is the name given to a spread fence, the top rails of which slant in opposite directions and visually look like a 'X' on approach (2 answers possible) ?
- 8) How many strides would a course builder put between 2 fences of a combination?
(2 answers - ½ for each correct answer)
- 9) What is the name of a hedge type fence which includes wispy pieces of hedge which protrude upwards sometimes making it appear very high and impenetrable. The horse needs to jump through the upper section.
- 10) When working in an arena with other horse riders and travelling in opposite directions, what is the normal etiquette? ..... shoulder to ..... shoulder
- 11) What is the name of the permanent fence at Hickstead which is an enclosed combination fence ?
- 12) If a rider enters a competition non-competitively, this is called _____ .
- 13) Walk is a .... beat pace. Canter is a ..... beat pace. (½ mark each)
- 14) Many competition riders use cheese-graters. What are they?
- 15) What is the name of Harvey Smith's son who became an equestrian champion?
- 16) What is the name for a chronic sleep disorder which can be seen in horses? The horse may fall asleep at inappropriate times, even when being worked.
- 17) What is the name for a cross-country fence which has a rail/log suspended over a ditch?
- 18) In horse racing, when a bet is split in two with half the bet being placed to win and the other half placed on a lower place, what type of bet is this called?.
- 19) What is the circular arrangement of hairs called which is often used as identity on a passport?
- 20) Where is the most likely place you would find sharks teeth?